OC Restaurant Association to host exclusive launch party on September 16th

ORANGE COUNTY, CA., September 2, 2008 -- Orange County's hottest VIP's in Orange County's Restaurant and Food industry to celebrate the launch of the OC Restaurant Association. This invitation-only party will take place from 6:00-8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 16 at the beautiful "ORANGE COAST ART HOUSE" by Cuvee Estates in Covenant Hills, Ladera Ranch.

To celebrate the launch guest will indulge in delicious cuisine created by Chef Phil of SteerCrazy International Barbeque and the Art Institute of Orange County. Fresh fruits and veggies by Melissa's, Breads and Pastries by Solomon's, Cheese platters by Kaserei Champignon, Chocolate by Downey's, Cocktails by KAI Vodka, Beer by The Bruery, Wine by Regal Wines, Drinks by Sole water and Coca Cola. Guests will also enjoy Live entertainment by Sebastian Sidi and enjoy exquisite art. Many of Orange County's finest chefs, restaurateurs and managers will attend this highly anticipated party.

"We are looking forward to bringing the local restaurant industry together for this party and know it will be an amazing time. With Orange Coast as our partner - how could it not be?" Said Gina Mims, VP, OC Restaurant Association.

"The OC Restaurant Association will embrace every city in Orange County. We are creating amazing events that every restaurant in every Orange County city can take part in. Diners will love the deals and restaurants will love the crowds," said Pamela Waitt founder of the OC Restaurant Association. Making everyone win is an important aspect of this association, whether you own a small family restaurant or operate multiple large restaurants there is something for you. Every Restaurant has something that makes it special and everyone eats!
